

Festival Strings 2018

*an educational outreach program
sponsored by the Ridgewood Symphony Orchestra*

November 2017

To Festival Strings Alumni:

As a former member of the Ridgewood Symphony Orchestra Festival Strings, and a high school student in grades 10-12, you are invited to apply to serve as a rehearsal assistant for this year's orchestra. All rehearsals and the concert will take place in March 2018. The conductor for Festival Strings 2018 is once again Todd Van Beveren. Mr. Van Beveren is the founder and artistic director of the Northern NJ Youth Orchestra. He also conducts the Montclair Chamber Ensemble and is the Orchestra Director at Columbia High School.

You probably remember from your own experience with Festival Strings that the success of this program depends on the help and support contributed by rehearsal assistants. Every year we are extremely grateful to those high school and college students who are willing to share their time and musical experience with younger students.

The responsibilities of a Rehearsal Assistant include:

- attending ALL Festival Strings rehearsals and the concert
- helping with tuning
- replacing broken strings
- circulating around a section to see which students need help
- offering encouragement to students who may never have played in a large group
- helping students make some new friends
- playing with the orchestra at the rehearsals and the concert
